

Scope Boundaries – Stock Maintenance System

The system is limited to inventory management within a single organization.

It does not handle financial transactions or multi-organization access.

The system operates as a standalone web-based application.